DIY Dog Birthday Party Kit

Everything you need to throw the ultimate barkday bash

3 dog-safe cake recipes • Party hat template • Photo booth props
"Happy Barkday" banner • Snack ideas • Party planner

📋 Party Planning Checklist

🗓️ 2 Weeks Before

- [ ] Choose date & time (morning or late afternoon — avoid midday heat)
- [ ] Make guest list — keep it small (3-5 dogs max for low stress)
- [ ] Pick location — backyard, park, or indoor space. Secure fencing is a must
- [ ] Plan dog-safe menu (see cake recipes & snack ideas in this kit)
- [ ] Send invitations — include any rules (vaccinated only, bring your own leash, etc.)

📦 1 Week Before

- [ ] Shop for ingredients (cake, frosting, snacks)
- [ ] Buy or gather party supplies: balloons (keep away from dogs!), decorations, bowls
- [ ] Print the banner, party hat, and photo booth props from this kit
- [ ] Confirm RSVPs and any special needs (allergies, shy dogs, etc.)

🎉 Day Of

- [ ] Bake the cake fresh (recipes in this kit — all easy!)
- [ ] Set up water stations — multiple bowls in different spots
- [ ] Create a quiet zone for overstimulated dogs (crate or separate room)
- [ ] Take photos before the mess begins!

🎂 Dog-Safe Cake #1: Peanut Butter Blast

🥜 Peanut Butter Banana Cake

Ingredients

- 1 ripe banana, mashed
- ½ cup natural peanut butter (NO xylitol!)
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup whole wheat flour
- 1 tsp baking powder
- ¼ cup water

Instructions

1. Preheat oven to 350°F. Grease a small round cake pan.
2. Mix banana, peanut butter, eggs, and water until smooth.
3. Add flour and baking powder. Stir until just combined.
4. Pour into pan. Bake 20-25 minutes until toothpick comes out clean.
5. Cool completely before frosting. See frosting recipe on page 5.

🧹 Cleanup Tips:

- Have poop bags readily available — designate a potty zone
- Use washable bowls, not disposable (dogs may chew plastic)
- Enzymatic cleaner on hand for accidents
- Take group photo before anyone leaves!
- Send guests home with a small bag of treats as a party favor
